Artist Bio

Hailing from the cityscapes of New York, Alt/Rock recording artist Madhava began hitting the ground running in the music industry as a solo act this year in 2017, and holds a lot of promise as he continues to manifest his multifaceted signature sound and active career. Madhava Hansen's musical journey began when he was just 6 years old, when he began taking up piano and listening to Indian Ragas through his parents' eastern religious background. At age 15, he expanded his realm when he started playing guitar and began writing songs not even a year later. Some of Madhava's musical roots and influences range from artists such as Cake, Frightened Rabbit, and Beck. Over the past 7 years, Madhava gained a lot of his experience in the New York City music scene while playing in bands at some of the city's most prominent venues, such as: The Knitting Factory, Mercury Lounge, Rockwood Music Hall, The Bitter End, and many more. Some of his previous bands include BAAM!, Fulcrum of the Stars, Manwell Godspeed, and The Neighbours (Ithaca, NY). He went on a National Tour with BAAM! in the summer of 2015. Now as a solo artist, on October 13th of this year in 2017, Madhava released his debut album "User", which was produced by Ryan D. Lee at Penguin House Studios in Williamsburg, Brooklyn; mixed by Raul Abellan at Millenia Estudios in Valencia, Spain; and mastered by 5-time Latin Grammy Award winner Alfonso Rodenas in Los Angeles. A collective and elite effort between the years of 2015 and 2017. Madhava is currently putting a band together on behalf of his solo material; songs he has been excited to bring to life for quite some time. He plans on bringing his collection of songs to the stage in an effort to promote his album through his live show and continue to build his name as a solo artist in the NYC scene. As Madhava continues to move forward as a solo artist with a very promising 2018 on the horizon, be sure to connect with him through his official Social Media and Music Streaming platforms for News, Music, Shows, Events and Booking.
